

London Victim
and Witness Service

Have you been affected by crime in London?

If you've experienced or witnessed a crime, the London Victim and Witness Service is here to support you and help you to work out your next steps.

We're here for all victims and witnesses of crime, including children and those supporting them, and you don't have to report a crime to get our help.

The support and information we offer is specific to your needs and the crime you've experienced.
